

Executive Director Cancer Center Midwest Hospital

Marshall Koll & Associates, a search firm specializing in recruiting leaders for health systems, has been retained by a hospital system in the midwest to assist in the recruitment of a new executive director for new, growing regional cancer center.

Our client

- Is a new state-of-the-art cancer center, which is part of a growing regional healthcare system serving a multi-state region.
- The $33M center occupies 50,000 square feet with 33 infusion bay and houses additional services including laboratory, imaging, social services, dietitians, a café, retail pharmacy, tumor registry, infusion pharmacy and physician offices.
- Technology includes two linear accelerators, specialized radiosurgery, high dose-rate brachytherapy, MRI, PACS, and the areas 1st PET/CT.
- The system consists of a 275 bed full service community hospital and offers an array of healthcare services including a heart & vascular center, a brain & spine center and a women's and children's center.
- Was a recipient of the HealthGrades® Outstanding Patient Experience Award™ for 3 consecutive years (2009, 2009/2010 & 2010/2011)

The Position

- Reports to the system Chief Nursing Officer.
- Provides leadership for the overall strategic direction, business development, financial performance, performance improvement, patient and staff satisfaction and operation of all Cancer Center services.

The Location

- Is centrally located and maintains its small town values and charm, while offering a multitude of activities and experiences often found in larger cities.
- Offers affordable housing and a very competitive cost of living ranked annually as one of the top most affordable housing markets in the country.
- Is a regional hub for education, commerce, and medical care.
- Is located less than 200 miles from four major metropolitan cities.
- Is home to a large state university and a public school system rated as one of the best in the state.
- Provides camping, fishing, rock climbing, hiking, backpacking, and wildlife appreciation; is also home to several museums and countless cultural, arts, and humanities activities and organizations.

An extremely competitive compensation/relocation package is available.

If you are aware of qualified individuals who may have an interest in learning more about this opportunity, they may contact:

Amy Saiter
Marshall Koll & Associates
820 S. MacArthur Suite #105-303
Coppell, TX 75019
866-744-2838
972-421-1574 Fax
amys@marshallkoll.com

All inquiries are confidential